

Concrete Extender

It is an extension machine of sliding casing for the hanging of monolithic profiles in the procedure of the lateral casing. The casts of the casing can be installed to the right or to the left of the framework. It is also possible to hang concrete layers up to a width of 2.50m, as well as kerbs and ditches.

